Q3 2026 Performance, Financial and Evidence Report

Stellar Ambassador Program
August to October 2026
Quarterly allocation: USD 30,000

11

qualifying events held

929

participant-attendances

14

ecosystem partners, target 3

Executive summary

Eleven qualifying events before October reached 929 participants across seven universities and the national industry chamber CANACINTRA, achieving 122% of the quarterly event target. A five-week online bootcamp reuses Colombia's Ruta N infrastructure at no additional development cost. 14 ecosystem partners confirmed against a target of 3. Three October programs close the quarter.

1. Context

Mexico's program runs across several states, connecting universities, government innovation centers, the national industry chamber and individual institutions into one Stellar education and builder program.

Type	Name	Description
Place	Huixquilucan	Municipality in the State of Mexico, west of Mexico City; home to TESH
Place	Morelos	State south of Mexico City (capital Cuernavaca); home to UTEZ, UAEM and CeMITT
Place	Puebla and Zacatlan	Puebla is Mexico's fourth largest metro area; Zacatlan is a mountain town in the Sierra Norte, far from tech hubs; both reached by the University Tour
Partner	CANACINTRA	Mexico's national chamber of manufacturing industry; connected BAF to universities, government and the online bootcamp
Partner	TESH	Tecnologico de Estudios Superiores de Huixquilucan; public technology institute where BAF trained faculty first
Partner	UTEZ	Universidad Tecnologica Emiliano Zapata; public tech university in Morelos
Partner	UAEM	Universidad Autonoma del Estado de Mexico; state public university
Partner	UVM	Universidad del Valle de Mexico; one of the largest private university networks
Partner	BUAP	Benemerita Universidad Autonoma de Puebla; one of the largest public universities in Mexico
Partner	ITSSNP	Instituto Tecnologico Superior de la Sierra Norte de Puebla; regional tech institute in Zacatlan
Partner	UNIPUEBLA	Universidad de Puebla; private university in Puebla city
Partner	UGM	Universidad del Golfo de Mexico; campus in Puebla
Partner	UNAM	Universidad Nacional Autonoma de Mexico; the largest university in Latin America
Partner	CeMITT + Fondo Morelos	State innovation center and small-business finance institute
